

Q. Well, I can take it to it if....

A. I'm not sure exactly what words I used.

Q. And that would be on page 20, I believe.

THE COURT: Twenty-one.

5 A. Yeah. Yeah. So I don't know the circumstances of this reunification therapy. But that was one of the options that I felt the court could consider.

B. FORTINO: Q. Yeah. I think that would be - would that not be in paragraph - or sorry, option number three on 10 page 21?

A. Option number four.

Q. Three or four, sorry. Three or four. Correct?

A. Yes.

15 Q. All right. And then just to be - flush this out more. In the next paragraph you describe your concerns - or sorry. You describe that each option has its own risks and benefits. Correct?

A. Yes.

20 Q. And you sort of rule out number one. With respect to number two, you indicate that reversing Zaria's primary placement to that of her father's care is highly intrusive. Do you recall stating that?

A. Yes.

25 Q. Would that still be your position now?

A. I, I don't think I could...

Q. Okay.

A. ...make a comment on that. I haven't had involvement with this family...

30 Q. Yeah. That, that - that's fair.

A. ...in quite some time.

Q. But at the time when you completed the report in December of 2023, you indicated reversing Zaria's primary